145 Price St.

Sept. 23, 1868

To the Wardens and Vestrymen
of Christ Church, Philad.a.

Very Dear Brethren,

I herewith beg leave to give up my entire salary,
now and hereafter, to you, as a free-will offering, to be appropriated to the best interests of our beloved Church.

So long as health will permit I shall esteem it a privilege to take a place in the chancel.

Accept my warmest thanks for your many kindnesses to me and believe me, ever affectionately, Your friend and Pastor,
Benjamin Dorr

Sept. 23rd 1868.

To the Wardens and Vestrymen
of Christ Church Philadelphia.

Very dear Brethren

In consequence of impaired health preventing me from attending to the active duties of the Parish as I would wish, I have concluded to put it in your power to provide any additional assistance in the Parochial work which you may deem necessary, and I therefore herewith relinquish my entire salary from this time forth, as a free will offering, to be appropriated by you, as you may deem best to the interests of our beloved Church.

So long as my health will permit, I shall continue to esteem it a privilege to be in the Chancel and take such parts of the service as I may feel able to perform.

Accept my warmest thanks for your many kindnesses to me, and believe me, ever affectionately,

Your friend
and Pastor

Benjamin Dorr
